Mt. Diablo Unified School District recently approved the new parent involvement policy. The policy review was an exhaustive process and input was gathered from staff and parents and the final draft was submitted to the Board of Education for approval in March, 2010. The next step is to develop new school-level parent involvement "policies" for each Title I school. Staff and parents will convene in August, 2010 to begin the alignment of the school level policies to the Administrative Rules found in the district parent involvement policy.
