AGREEMENT

This Agreement between the Mt. Diablo Unified School District Board of Education (hereafter District) and the Supervisory Unit Employees (hereafter Supervisory Employees) has been reached through “meeting and negotiating” as defined by Section 3540.1(h) of the Government Code.

I. RECOGNITION

The California law governing collective bargaining in the public schools requires that each category of employee be designated to a “unit” in accord with legal definitions. The positions covered by this handbook have been designated as belonging to the Supervisory Unit because the employees in this unit assign work, evaluate performance and participate in employment and disciplinary processes. The employees supervised are designated to the Food Services Unit which is represented by the Teamster Union Local #856.

The District recognizes that the Supervisory Employees have chosen among themselves to be self represented.

II. COVERAGE

The Supervisory Unit consists of all employees in the classified service in the following classifications:

Food Service Manager
Senior Food Service Manager
Principal Food Service Manager
Production Food Service Manager

III. SUPERVISORY EMPLOYEES RIGHTS, PRIVILEGES AND BENEFITS

A supervisory Employee enjoys certain rights, privileges and benefits. These include, but are not limited to:

A. Representation

1. The Supervisory Unit has the right to meet with the Board of Education’s representatives for all employment issues determined to be “in scope” by the Public Employment Relations Board including wages.
2. Under certain restrictions, the unit has the right to communicate with other Supervisory Employees during working hours and to use District bulletin boards and facilities to conduct unit business.
3. The Supervisory Unit Employees will recognize the exercise of the foregoing powers, rights, authority, duties, and responsibilities by the District, the adoption of policies, rules, regulations, and practices according in furtherance thereof, and the use of judgment and discretion in connection therewith, shall be limited only by the specific and express terms of this Agreement, and then only to the extent such specific and express terms are in conformance with Federal Regulations and the laws of the State of California.

B. Due Process

A progressive disciplinary procedure protecting against suspension, demotion, involuntary reassignment/transfer or dismissal without sufficient cause is provided in Board policy and procedure. Progressive steps will be utilized to the greatest extent permitted by individual circumstances and be commensurate with the offense. These steps are as follows:

1. Verbal Reprimand
2. Letter of Caution (not placed in the Employee's Personnel file)
3. Written Reprimand
4. Suspension without pay
5. Involuntary reassignment to another location which results in loss of pay or to another classification or demotion.
6. Dismissal

Dismissal/Suspension/Disciplinary Action

A recommendation for disciplinary action may originate with the member of management considered to be the employee's supervisor. Such recommendation shall be submitted to the Director of Personnel who will further review the facts of the situation and proceed with appropriate steps.

Release of Probationary Employee

A probationary employee may be released at any time during the probationary period by the governing board upon the recommendation of the Superintendent. If the employee is probationary as a result of a promotion, the employee shall be reassigned to the classification from which the promotion was made unless the reasons for release would be cause for dismissal of a permanent employee.

No appeal is available to a probationary employee.

Just Cause

Among the causes which shall be deemed sufficient for suspension, demotion, or dismissal are the following:

1. Incompetency, inefficiency, insubordination, inattention to or dereliction of duty, discourteous treatment of the public or of fellow employees, or any other willful failure of good conduct tending to injure the public service, or any willful and persistent violation of the provisions of the Education Code or of rules and regulations adopted by the governing board pursuant to it; provided that specific instances must be set forth as to any of the causes enumerated under this heading.

Further, such notice shall contain a statement of the cause for the action taken, and such rule or regulation that the employee has violated. Additionally, the notice is to include a statement of the employee's right to a hearing on such charges and the time within which such hearing may be requested, which shall not be less than five days after service of the notice to the employee. In the absence of a demand for a hearing, the recommended disciplinary action will be effective on the date the employee was served with such notice.

The notice shall also contain a form, the signing and filing of which shall constitute an appeal and a denial of all charges, provided that it is filed within five (5) working days after receipt of the notice by the employee.

No permanent classified employee shall be dismissed, suspended or demoted unless given written notice signed by the Superintendent or his/her designee, identifying the reasons for the dismissal, suspension, or demotion, and the effective dates thereof.

Right of Appeal/Hearing

If a hearing is requested, it shall be conducted by a hearing officer selected by the District and the employee. If agreement cannot be reached the District shall select the hearing officer. A record of the hearing may be made. Costs of the hearing shall be shared equally by the District and the employee.

The hearing officer shall submit recommended decision to the Board of Education which shall include proposed findings of fact and determination of issues. A copy of the recommended decision shall be sent to the employee.

The Board of Education may either accept, reject, or modify the recommended decision. If the Board of Education rejects or modifies the hearing officer's decision, it shall provide the employee with its rationale for the rejection or modification.

Such material is not to include ratings, reports, or records which (1) were obtained prior to the employment of the person involved, (2) were prepared by identifiable examination committee members, or (3) were obtained in connection with a promotional examination.

Every employee shall have the right to inspect such materials upon request, provided that the request is made at a time when such person is not actually required to render services to the employing district.

This change in assignment is termed a promotion and is effected in accordance with the procedures outlined in Rule 4211 relating to employee selection.

Beginning on the first day of paid service in a higher classification, the employee will receive the first step of the higher applicable salary range provided a minimum 5% upward adjustment over his/her present rate of pay occurs. In the event this does not occur, the employee will be placed on such step in the applicable new range that provides a minimum 5% upward adjustment in salary up to the final step of the new range.

An employee occupying a regular position may temporarily be promoted to a higher level class with appropriate administrative approval.

3. Demotion occurs when an employee is voluntarily or involuntarily placed in a class with a maximum salary range less than that which the employee currently occupies. An involuntary demotion is effected only under the provisions outlined in Section B relating to disciplinary action.

1. A “complaint” shall be defined as an alleged misapplication of the policies and/or rules of the District. Procedures for a complaint provide a route of appeal through channels to the governing board, if necessary.
2. The official path of communication in dealing with complaints is as follows:
 - a. An employee should bring complaint questions and similar issues as defined in 1 above to employee’s immediate supervisor and/or building principal.
 - b. If the complaint is one that can be handled at the immediate supervisor level, the supervisor shall proceed to take whatever action is necessary.
 - c. If, in the immediate supervisor’s judgment, the complaint should go directly to central office level, the supervisor should consult with and/or turn the complaint over to the appropriate department head who shall inform the immediate supervisor concerning the disposition of the complaint.
 - d. In the event that an employee presents the division head with a complaint that had not been presented to the immediate supervisor, even though it should have been so presented, the director will refer the employee back to the immediate supervisor and will so inform the immediate supervisor.

e. If any employee presents the division head with a complaint about which the employee has conferred with the immediate supervisor and about which the employee is still discontent, the director shall hear the employee's discussion and, in turn, shall hear the immediate supervisor's discussion. The director shall then convene a joint conference of the division head, the immediate supervisor and the employee. Should such a conference not produce a mutually satisfactory solution, the director shall render a decision.

f. If the employee involved in "e" above is still dissatisfied with the decision as rendered, the employee may submit a written appeal to the Superintendent.

g. If, subsequent to "f" above, the employee is still dissatisfied with the decision rendered, the employee may submit a written appeal to the governing board.

h. If the governing board decides to consider the appeal, the Superintendent will arrange a hearing at a time suitable to all parties. After the hearing, the governing board shall render a decision which shall be final.

i. In some instances, the aggrieved party has recourse to legal action, in which event, all preceding activities become a matter of record. The subsequent court decision would then be the final decision.

b. The supervisor will respond in writing to the employee within 5 working days as to the timeline and action to be taken.

- The deductible provision does not apply to damages to the clothing of a unit member arising from an assault upon the unit member.

N. LAYOFF/REEMPLOYMENT

Layoff

1. Classified probationary or permanent status employees shall be subject to layoff for lack of work or lack of funds. The order of layoff shall be determined by length of service within the affected classification. Length of service means date of regular employment into the classified service for all employees. The employee with the least seniority in the affected classification including seniority accrued from serving in a higher classification shall be laid off first. If the layoff-affected employee previously served in a lower classification, seniority rights to employment in the lower classification may be exercised by the employee. Should this action result in the necessity to lay off an employee from the lower classification, the same seniority and reemployment procedures shall be applied.
2. Layoff-affected employees shall be given written notice not less than 60 days prior to the effective date of the layoff. Should the layoff result from the expiration of a specially funded program at the end of a school year, employees to be laid off for lack of funds shall be given written notice on or before April 29 informing them of their layoff effective at the end of the school year and of their displacement and reemployment rights. If the program termination date is other than June 30, such notice shall be given not less than 60 days prior to the effective date of the layoff. If the employee is eligible for continued employment in a lower class which will result in the displacement of another employee, this information will be included in the written notice along with a form on which the employee shall indicate the option to displace an employee in the lower classification or accept layoff.

3. An employee who elects to be laid off in lieu of displacing another employee shall be entitled to reemployment rights.
4. Should layoff for lack of funds become necessary because the District experiences an actual and existing inability to pay salaries of classified employees, or a layoff for lack of work results from causes not foreseeable or preventable, the written notice provisions shall not be required.
5. An employee occupying a regular position will not be subject to layoff from any position while employees serving on a short-term or substitute basis are retained in the same class.

Reemployment

1. Reemployment following a layoff shall be in the reverse order of layoff. Employees laid off for lack of work or lack of funds shall be eligible for reemployment for a period of 39 months and shall be reemployed in preference to new applicants. In addition, such layoff-affected employees shall be notified of and be afforded the right to participate in any . promotional opportunities offered by the District during the 39 month period.
2. Employees who take a voluntary reassignment to a lower classification or voluntary reduction in assigned time in lieu of a total layoff, shall be granted an additional 24-month period of time toward restoration of previous classification or level of hours for a total of 63 months.

Computation of Seniority Credit

- a. Seniority is based upon the length of continuous service as a regular probationary or permanent employee in the classified service.
- b. Length of continuous service is determined by date of regular permanent employment in the classified service.
- c. Length of service is based upon all hours in paid status, recorded by classification, exclusive of overtime and unpaid leaves of absence. Paid hours accumulated during the work year, a holiday, vacation time off or paid vacation, extra duty assignments, recess or during any period that school is in session or closed will be included.
- d. "Hours in paid status" shall be service performed upon entering into regular permanent employment with the District except for service in restricted positions as provided by law.
- e. If the hours in paid status are equal, then the layoff determination shall be made on the basis of the greater hire date of employment seniority. If the hire dates of employment are equal then the determination shall be made by lot.

- f. Seniority shall be recorded by each classification for service in multiple positions. If an employee previously held a higher classification than the classification in issue, the seniority hours accumulated in the higher classification will be combined with the current classification to determine seniority ranking.
